

01/08/07

To: All Students

From: UCI Student Affairs

Subject: Legends of China

UCI is pleased to announce the 7th annual Legends of China program "The Silk Road to the Future, 2007." This exchange program provides an incomparable opportunity for the sharing of ideas and knowledge between individuals of different cultures and experiences. The 2007 summer program provides four options of varying duration and is open to all interested UCI students, faculty, staff, alumni, and their families.

Per person cost ranges from $1,396 to $4,041 depending on the option selected and include round trip airfare, four and five star hotels, all meals, ground transportation, insurance, historical and cultural tours (e.g. the Forbidden City, the Imperial Summer Palace, the Great Wall of China, Chinese universities, Xian, Mogao Caves, Turpan, Urumqi, Shanghai, Tibet, etc.)

Please join us for one of the following information sessions to learn more about this opportunity:

Tuesday, January 16, 2007

12:00 - 1:00 p.m.

Cross-Cultural Center

Thursday, January 25, 2007

2:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Cross-Cultural Center

Wednesday, January 31, 2007

12:00 - 1:00 p.m.

Cross-Cultural Center

To hold space, submit a completed application along with a $150.00 non-refundable deposit. Full payment is due by February 15, 2007 for non-student travelers (faculty, staff, alumni and family members) and April 1, 2007 for student travelers.

Additional information and applications for the Legends of China program are available on the Legends of China website at <http://www.legendsofchina.com>. Please email flai@uci.edu or call (949) 824-2002.